

GIVE YOUR SCOUT A HEAD START!

The very first badge of rank EVERY boy must earn when starting Cub Scouts is Bobcat. It introduces important ideas that every Scout should know.

The requirements are outlined in the Cub Scout Handbook, but even before you purchase the book, you can give your Scout a head start by reviewing this page with him!

IMPORTANT NOTE:

The 7th requirement for Bobcat states: "With your parent or guardian, complete the exercises in the booklet" found in your Cub Scout Handbook. The booklet, entitled "How to Protect Your Children from Child Abuse," is an important part of the Boy Scouts of America's youth protection strategy. To learn more about this strategy, speak with any Pack leader or visit:
